OUT-OF-STATE COMPANIES IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE TAKING NOTICE OF MIAMI FREE ZONE

Doral, FL- April 22, 2016 – As Miami continues to grow as a global city and Florida becomes the third most populous state in the U.S., out-of-state businesses are taking notice, and companies moving into the region seeking for a strategic location for international business, are looking towards Miami Free Zone as an integrated solution for all aspects of trade. Miami Free Zone's unique concept integrates an international business center atmosphere inclusive of perks such as logistics resources, networking events, conference facilities, and affordable spaces, to its turnkey FTZ (Foreign Trade Zone) solution - a very attractive proposition for anyone involved in international trade.

During the first quarter of 2016, Miami Free Zone welcomed an impressive twelve new companies to its facilities, out of which four come from out-of-state:

- Relocating from New York (NY), Delta Enterprise USA distributes mobile phones and accessories globally. Delta is part of the Vishal Group family, a major South Asian Trading House. In addition to its new Miami headquarters, Delta also has offices and retail locations in California, New York, and Delaware.
- Headquartered in Frankfort (IL), Integrity Trade Services is a national staffing service provider with multiple locations in Illinois, Indiana, Texas and now Florida.
- Headquartered in Chicago (IL), True Value Company, is one of the world's largest retailer-owned wholesale hardware cooperatives with gross billings of over $2 billion and revenue of $1.5 billion in 2014. The cooperative includes approximately 4,500 retailer locations worldwide operating under the store identities of True Value, Grand Rental Station, Taylor Rental, Party Central, Home & Garden Showplace and Induserve Supply.
- And a wholesale distributor of electronics relocating from Akron (OH).

As a regional epicenter for international trade, Miami Free Zone has played a leading role in promoting trade and commerce in South Florida for over 36 years. Today, visitors and businesses from out of state also get to experience Miami Free Zone through its international business center atmosphere and specialized offerings for international trade.
